

Reading Suggestions for “We All Fall Down”

Flight Behavior by Barbara Kingsolver

This bestselling novel takes on one of the most contentious subjects of our time: climate change. With a deft and versatile empathy, the author dissects the motives that drive denial and belief in a precarious world.

Mrs. Frisby and the Rats of NIMH by Robert C. O’Brien

Winner of the 1972 Newbery Award for children’s literature, this novel relates the plight of a widowed field mouse, Mrs. Frisby, who seeks the aid of a group of former laboratory rats and mice in rescuing her home from destruction by a farmer's plow.

The Moon by Whale Light and Other Adventures Among Bats, Penguins, Cocodilians and Whales by Diane Ackerman

In a rare blend of scientific fact and poetic truth, the author of The Zookeeper’s Wife explores the activities of whales, penguins, bats, and crocodilians, plunging headlong into nature and coming up with highly entertaining treasures.

The Soul of an Octopus: A Surprising Exploration into the Wonder of Consciousness

by Sy Montgomery

The author of the bestselling memoir The Good Good Pig explores the emotional and physical world of the octopus—a surprisingly complex, intelligent, and spirited creature—and the remarkable connections it makes with humans.

The View from the Oak: The Private Worlds of Other Creatures

by Herbert Kohl & Judith Kohl

This 1978 winner of the National Book Award for children’s literature is a classic science book and groundbreaking work of ethology—the study of the way animals perceived the environment.
